

Privacy and Dignity Policy and Procedure

1.0 Purpose

Yumaro provides our participants with access to services and supports that respect and protect their dignity and right to privacy.

2.0 Scope

This policy applies to all participants and staff of Yumaro and other service agency representatives.

3.0 Policy

Yumaro is committed to protecting and upholding all stakeholders' rights to privacy and dignity, including participants, staff, management and representatives of other service agencies.

Yumaro is committed to protecting and upholding the participants' rights to privacy and dignity as we collect, store and handle information about them, their needs and the services provided to them.

Yumaro requires staff and management to be considered and consistent when writing documents regarding a participant and when deciding who has access to this information.

Yumaro is subject to NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission rules and regulations. Yumaro will follow the guidelines of the Australian Privacy Principles in its information management practices.

Yumaro will ensure that each participant understands and agrees to the type of personal information collected and the reasons for collection. If the material is to be recorded in an audio or visual format, the participant must agree to their involvement in writing before any material can be collected. The participant must also be informed when the material is recorded in an audio or visual format.

Yumaro will advise each participant of our Privacy Policy using the language, mode of communication and terms that the participant is most likely to understand (Easy Read documents are made available to all participants).

Yumaro will ensure that:

- it meets its legal and ethical obligations as an employer and service provider concerning protecting the privacy of participants, and organisational personnel
- participants are provided with information about their rights regarding privacy and confidentiality
- participants and organisational personnel are provided with privacy, and confidentiality is assured when they are being interviewed or discussing matters of a personal or sensitive nature
- all staff, management and volunteers understand the requirements to meet their obligations
- participants are informed of Yumaro confidentiality policies using the language, mode of communications and terms they are most likely to understand
- Yumaro will attempt to locate interpreters and use easy-read materials.

This policy conforms to the Federal Privacy Act (1988) and the Australian Privacy Principles, which govern personal information collection, use, and storage.

This policy will apply to all records, whether hard copy or electronic, containing personal information about individuals and interviews or discussions of a sensitive personal nature.

4.0 Procedure

4.1 Dealing with personal information

In dealing with personal information, Yumaro staff will:

- ensure privacy for the participants, staff, or management when they are being interviewed or discussing matters of a personal or sensitive nature
- collect and store personal information that is only necessary for the functioning of the organisation and its activities
- use fair and lawful ways to collect personal information
- collect personal information only with consent from the individual

- ensure that people know of the type of personal information collected, the purpose of keeping the information, the method used when information is collected, used or disclosed, and who will have access to the information
- ensure that personal information collected or disclosed is accurate, complete, and up-to-date and provide access to the individual to review information or correct wrong information about themselves
- take reasonable steps to protect all personal information from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure
- destroy or permanently de-identify personal information no longer needed or after legal requirements for retaining documents that have expired
- ensure that participants understand and agree with the type of personal information being collected and the reason/s for the collection
- ensure participants are advised of any recordings in either audio or visual format. Before collecting material, the participant's involvement in any recording format has been agreed to in writing.

4.2 Participant records

Participant records will be kept confidential and only handled by staff directly engaged in delivering service to the participant. Information about a participant may only be made available to other parties with the consent of the participant, or their advocate, guardian or legal representative. A written agreement providing permission to keep a recording must be stored in the participant's file.

All hard copy files of participant records will be kept securely in a locked filing cabinet in the office of Management.

4.3 Responsibilities for managing privacy

All staff members are responsible for managing personal information to which they have access. Management is responsible for the content appearing in Yumaro publications, communications, and on our website and must ensure:

- appropriate consent is sought and obtained for the inclusion of any personal information about any individual, including Yumaro personnel (see Consent Policy and Procedure)
- information provided by other agencies or external individuals conforms to our privacy principles

- our website contains a Privacy Statement that clearly outlines the conditions regarding any collection of personal information from the public captured via their visit to the website.

Management is responsible for safeguarding personal information relating to Yumaro staff, management and contractors. Management will be responsible for:

- ensuring that all staff members are familiar with the Privacy Policy and administrative procedures for handling personal information
- providing participants and other relevant individuals with information about their rights regarding privacy and dignity
- handling any queries or complaints about a privacy issue.

4.4 Privacy information for participants

Information sharing is part of our legislative requirements. Participants must consent to any information sharing between our organisation and government bodies. The participant is informed they can opt-out of any NDIS information sharing during audits.

4.5 Privacy for interviews and personal discussions

To ensure privacy for participants or staff when discussing sensitive or personal matters, Yumaro will only collect personal information which is necessary for the provision of support and services and which:

- is given voluntarily
- will be stored securely on the Yumaro database.

When in possession, or control, of a record containing personal information, Yumaro will ensure that the record shall be protected against loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by such steps as is reasonable in the circumstances. In cases when a record must be provided to a person in connection with the provision of a service to Yumaro, everything reasonable will be done to prevent unauthorised use or disclosure of that record.

Yumaro will not disclose any personal information to a third party without an individual's consent unless that disclosure is required or authorised by, or under, law.
